

Hohenstein Quality Label

Added value for your brand

Our Hohenstein Quality Label not only has a high recognition value at the point of sale - it also enjoys a high level of credibility in the trade and among the consumers. Based on our independent certification, consumers can quickly and easily verify the special quality of your product. The Hohenstein Quality Label is an internationally registered trademark.

Precondition

Compliance with defined minimum requirements relating to tested characteristics. The quality label is based on a test report with detailed results.

Procedure

- Issue of a declaration of conformity in which the applicant declares that all manufactured and / or distributed articles of the respective consumer product are conform to the sample from the report which has been inspected by Hohenstein.
- Issue of a label license agreement for the use of the Hohenstein Quality Label.
- After signing the declaration of conformity and the label license agreement, the label will be provided

Duration

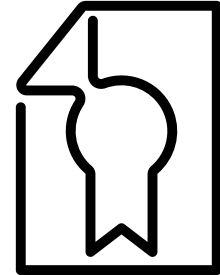

- Validity: 1 year
- 3 months before expiry, renewal of the declaration of conformity and extension of validity for another year.
- 3 months before expiry of the 2nd year, re-testing of the test sample (subject to a fee).
- After passing this test successfully, extension of the label for another year.

B2B Marketing Tool: Hohenstein Certificate

Procedure and validity same as for the Hohenstein Quality Label

Fee

- Annual label usage fee of 450 € (for label and/or certificate)
- Testing fee on request

Further information as well as tips and examples for use you can find here:

<https://www.hohenstein.com/en/trust/hohenstein-quality-labels>